Park Avenue Synagogue Names Its High School In Honor of Rabbi Judah Nadich

Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Park Avenue Synagogue, Mr. Nathaniel H. Usdan, is pleased to announce that both the Board of Trustees and the congregation recently approved the naming of its high school as the Judah Nadich High School in honor of its rabbi emeritus, Judah Nadich.

Rabbi Nadich served as the spiritual leader of our synagogue from 1957 to 1987 when he retired. It was during his tenure that the high school was founded. In a recent article by Michael Shapiro in the Anglo-Jewish Press, the school was praised as one of the six Hebrew schools in America "that break the mold."

The rabbi came to New York City from Brookline, Mass. where he had served for ten years. Earlier, he had been a chaplain in the U.S. army for four years, the first Jewish chaplain ordered to Europe during World War II, where he ministered to the troops in Northern Ireland, Great Britain, Normandy, and Paris. When the American army liberated the Nazi concentration camps in 1945, General Eisenhower ordered him to American headquarters in Germany at Frankfurt and appointed him his advisor on Jewish affairs. While there, he worked to improve the conditions of the Jewish survivors. In addition to receiving American medals, he received the Croix de Guerre from France, the Order of The British Empire from Great Britain, and the Aleh (Warrior's Medal) from Israel. He described his war time experience in his book Eisenhower and the Jews.

Immediately after his return to the U.S. with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, he went on a six month speaking tour of forty states for the United Jewish Appeal, followed by a four month tour of South Africa, Zimbabwe and Zambia for the South African War Appeal.

Currently, he serves as vice president of the Jewish Braille Institute, a member of the board of the Abraham Joshua Heschel School, a member of the advisory committee of the Jacob Perlow Hospice of Beth Israel Hospital, and a member of the executive committee and board of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America where he was ordained and then received his doctorate degree. He also received an honorary doctorate degree from the Seminary.

He edited Al Halakhah v' Aggadah by Louis Ginzberg and translated and edited The Flowering of Modern Hebrew Literature by Menachem Ribalow, his late father-in-law. In 1983, his Legends of the Second Jewish Commonwealth was published. He is working on a sequel at the present time.

Selihot Service September 19

The Selihot service sets the tone for the High Holy Days. This year, it will take place on Saturday evening, September 19th.

The usual coffee hour will be held at 8:15 P.M., followed by a lecture at 9 P.M. to be given this year by Rabbi James Lebeau, currently president of the Israel Connection/Kesher, Residential Property Management Company and Israel representative of the Jewish Publication Society.

Rabbi Lebeau made Aliyah to Israel in July, 1985 to become Dean of Foreign Students for the Conservative Movement's Rabbinical School in Israel and to join the faculty of Hebrew University's Overseas Program.

Prior to his Aliyah, he was rabbi of Temple Beth El in Lowell, Mass. and rabbi of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation of the University of Lowell.

Born in Akron, Ohio, he received his B.A. degree from Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio and then his Master of Hebrew Literature degree from and his ordination by The Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

He is the author of a publication entitled, The Jewish Dietary Laws: Sanctify Life, for the United Synagogue, N.Y., 1983, and of an article: "Our Obsession with the Holocaust," in Conservative Judaism, Fall, 1982.

He will speak to us on the topic: "Tension Between Israel's Religious and Secular Communities: Potential For Civil War."

Rabbi Lebeau is married to Marcia Greenman Lebeau and the father of three children: Jennifer, Daniel, and Deborah.

The Choral Meditation will take place at 9:45 P.M., followed by the Selihot service at 10 P.M. Cantor David Lefkowitz, with the synagogue's High Holy Day Choir, directed by Neil Robinson, will chant the traditional Selihot liturgy, with prayers led by Rabbi David H. Lincoln.

It is traditional for Jews to listen to a lecture and recite penitential prayers on the Saturday evening before Rosh Hashanah to prepare both intellectually and spiritually for the High Holy Days.

Plan to attend this beautiful service to prepare yourself for the High Holy Days.

Rabbi Crespy Will Hold Two Holiday Workshops

Sign-up for Rabbi Melissa Crespy's holiday workshops and find out "Everything You Always Wanted To Know About Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur But Were Afraid To Ask" on Sunday morning, September 13th from 10:30 A.M. to 1 P.M. If the liturgy of the Days of Awe has baffled you or if the customs and laws of the High Holy Days have eluded you, then this comprehensive workshop is for you!

Likewise, come learn "Everything You Always Wanted To Know About Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret, and Simhat Torah..." on Sunday morning, October 11th also from 10:30 A.M. to 1 P.M. What do we do in a sukkah? What are the customs involved? Why do we dance on Simhat Torah? Who is the "groom of the Torah?" The answers to these questions and many others are awaiting you at this workshop!

These workshops are designed to be "crash courses" or refresher courses. They are scheduled before each set of holidays to enable students to immediately put their new knowledge into practice. They are ideal for parents with young children, potential converts to Judaism, and for anyone interested in becoming a more informed and literate Jew.

The workshops are free and babysitting will be provided. However, reservations are necessary! Please call Rabbi Crespy's office to make your reservation, and tell her how many children you will be bringing!

From The Rabbi's Desk

In this troubled world of ours, it is worth remembering that Rosh Hashanah stresses the universal aspect of Judaism. It is God, as King of the whole world, whom we enthrone. It is for the betterment of all peoples that we pray.

In the Book of Ecclesiastes we read: "I turned and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun." This is the essence of the message of Rosh Hashanah. Wherever men and women strive for justice and freedom, the Jew must be in the forefront.

On the first day of the Festival the scriptural reading tells of an incident which, on the face of it, bears no relationship to the solemn purposes of the day. Abimelech, King of Gerer, enters into a covenant of peace with Abraham. The father of our people has reservations, however. "And Abraham reprimanded Abimelech concerning the well of water which the servants of Abimelech had stolen." Only when the latter denies all knowledge of the incident is Abraham placated and signifies his readiness to ratify the treaty.

A famous rabbi pointed out that it was not Abraham who was the victim of the theft. He himself had not suffered from it. But an act of injustice had been perpetrated and the Jew was unable to rest until the wrong had been righted.

Even before the age of ecumenism we did not overlook the fact that we were part of humanity as a whole; that we have a duty towards and concern for our fellow human beings; that what affects civilization as a whole must ultimately affect us.

The example set by our forefather Abraham is the standard which we should endeavor to maintain. This, the prime message of the High Holy Days, must be transmitted into our daily lives. And when we come to the synagogue and utter the words "today all of humankind stands on trial," let us earnestly pray that the whole human race may be inscribed in the Book of Life. May we look forward to that day when justice is assured for all, for the suffering people of Bosnia and the oppressed everywhere. Amen.

—Rabbi David H. Lincoln

Seminary Briefs

Sephardic Conference Set

The Jewish Theological Seminary of America and the Center for Israel and Jewish Studies at Columbia University will jointly host an international conference commemorating the 500th anniversary of the expulsion of the Jews of Spain. Also collaborating in the conference is the Jewish Museum, which is under the Seminary's auspices.

"Crisis and Creativity in the Sephardic World, 1391-1648," as the conference is called, will run from November 8 through November 11 and will be open to the public. For more information, call the Seminary's Office of Public Events at 678-8979.

New Seminary CD Goes On Sale

From The Jewish Theological Seminary of America comes an exciting new compact disc, "Music of the High Holidays."

Featuring the Seminary's Cantors Institute Choir under the direction of Hugo Weisgall, the CD offers 25 inspiring liturgical selections composed by some of the most important composers of Jewish liturgical music of the 19th and 20th centuries.

The text is familiar. It comes directly from the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur liturgies. The music is exquisite. The explanatory notes and biographical sketches of the composers, written by Cantors Institute Dean Rabbi Morton Leifman, are filled with interesting information.

The CD retails for $16.95 each. For information or to order, please call The Cantors Institute of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, 678-8036.

Volunteers Needed For Workshops On Job-Related Skills

The Interfaith Assembly on Homelessness and Housing is seeking volunteers to help lead workshops on: how to write a resume; prepare for an interview; conduct a meeting; and other job-related skills.

If you are qualified and interested in teaching such workshops (one to two hours each), please contact Rabbi Crespy at the synagogue.

The Alternative High Holy Days Service

Park Avenue Synagogue again will be hosting an alternative service for the High Holy Days. This alternative service will be led by two rabbinical students who are preparing an interesting program of informal and participatory study and worship to appeal primarily to young men and women in their 20's and 30's.

The service will be held in the Appleman Chapel on the following dates and times:

- First day of Rosh Hashanah, Monday, September 28th at 10 A.M.
- Second day of Rosh Hashanah, Tuesday, September 29th at 10 A.M.
- Kol Nidre, Tuesday evening, October 6th at 6:30 P.M.
- Yom Kippur, Wednesday morning, October 7th at 10 A.M.

Service and Study on Shabbat With Rabbi Melissa Crespy

Havurah Services

Once a month there is a Shabbat morning service in the Edmond de Rothschild Library. This monthly service is friendly, warm, and informal, and is designed to provide a comfortable atmosphere for learning. It is called a Havurah service and is ideal for beginners who are just learning the choreography of prayer, for potential converts to Judaism, or for anyone interested in praying in a less formal, discussion-oriented environment where the emphasis is on individual participation and learning.

These services will be held on the following ten Shabbat mornings throughout the 1992-93 year at 9:30 A.M.:

- |                |              |
|----------------|--------------|
| • September 12 | • February 6 |
| • October 3    | • March 6    |
| • November 7   | • April 3    |
| • December 5   | • May 1      |
| • January 9    | • June 5     |

Shabbat Afternoon Study

On Shabbat afternoons, following the Minhah service, various rabbinic texts are studied: Maimonides' Mishnah Torah and Pirkei Avot — The Ethics of the Fathers — in informal study sessions.

Rabbi Crespy enthusiastically looks forward to welcoming you to one or both of these on Shabbatot.

Fall Opening Programs From The "Arms"

Couples Club Barbecue Thursday, September 10

The Couples Club of the Park Avenue Synagogue will once again begin the New Year with its annual Roof-Top Barbecue at the synagogue on Thursday, September 10 at 6:30 P.M., just after the Labor Day Weekend. This event is open to the entire congregation and is a great way to get back into the "New York swing," see old friends and meet new people. The cost is $18 per person for all you can eat! So join us atop the roof-rain or shine.

Moreover, for the first time this year, the Couples Club is pleased to be sponsoring the 1993 Entertainment Book, the world's leading leisure discount program. The Entertainment Book, now in its 31st year, provides substantial discounts for theaters and other cultural events: movies; sporting events; fine and casual dining; parking; hotel rooms; and much much more. The 1993 Book will be available in late fall and is being offered by the Couples Club at its standard price of $30.

In addition, the club is planning several other events for the 1993-94 year, including a gala Saturday night program in January.

For additional information about the Couples Club, to make reservations for the Roof-Top Barbecue, or to order the Entertainment Book, please call the synagogue office and leave your name and telephone number.

Save The Date! Tuesday, October 13

Sisterhood is inviting new female members of the Park Avenue Synagogue to its annual membership luncheon to be held on Tuesday, October 13th at 12 Noon. Since the luncheon will take place during the Festival of Sukkot, it will be held in the beautiful Ritter Sukkah on the roof of the Park Avenue Synagogue!

Men's Club Baseball Outing Sunday, September 13

Join the Men's Club outing to Yankee Stadium on Sunday, September 13th to see the N.Y. Yankees play the Kansas City Royals. The cost is $20 per ticket and the game begins at 1:30 P.M. Also, this is Watch Day at the stadium.

All members of the congregation are invited. Since a limited number of tickets are available, act quickly by sending your check, payable to the Men's Club, to the synagogue, in care of the Men's Club. Reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. For additional information, please contact Les Agisim at 371-3933.

W.E.G. To Hold Two Special Events This Month

The Women's Evening Group of the Park Avenue Synagogue has planned two special events this month: first, a reception and supper for new female members of the Park Avenue Synagogue on September 9th; and second, a "For Members Only" Pot Luck Supper on September 21st to begin the group's new program year.

On Wednesday evening, September 9th, the women who have joined Park Avenue Synagogue since November, 1991 will be invited to a reception in their honor at the home of W.E.G. vice president Joann Rosoff. This reception will provide an opportunity for new members to meet one another and become acquainted before the High Holy Days, and become more knowledgeable about the purpose and program of the Women's Evening Group.

Then, on Monday evening, September 21st, W.E.G. will hold its always popular "For Members Only" Pot Luck Supper at a member's home. Membership renewal letters were sent out last month and those who renew by September 21st will be eligible to attend the Pot Luck Supper and program meeting and have their names submitted for the drawing that evening of two tickets to the Broadway show of the winner's choice! So join W.E.G. early this year to be able to attend this opening special event and participate in the drawing. Annual dues are only $30. In addition to the supper, an interesting program is being planned.

Roses For Rosh Hashanah

The Men's Club of the Park Avenue Synagogue is sponsoring its annual "Roses for Rosh Hashanah" project through which you can send beautiful bouquets of roses to your loved ones for the New Year (delivered at no extra charge). The choices are: one dozen long-stem white, pink, or red roses for $18 or 24 long-stem roses in assorted colors for $32. Orders will be taken by mail only. Please send your order and check to Park Avenue Synagogue, attention Men's Club "Roses." All profits from this project will go to the Men's Club Educational and Cultural Scholarship Fund. For additional information, please contact Les Agisim at 371-3933.

Committee For The Homeless & Community Outreach To Formulate Action Calendar

The Committee For The Homeless & Community Outreach will formulate an action calendar for 1992-93 at a supper meeting on Tuesday, September 15 beginning at 6 P.M. in the Cohen Library.

During 1991-92, the Committee continued to provide new bed linen packages to families moving from shelters to permanent housing; converted an attic space in a shelter into a

In Celebration of the High Holy Days

In Our Homes

Rosh Hashanah

Rosh Hashanah is both a solemn and a festive occasion. Its joy is spiritually disciplined by the sacred traditions of home and synagogue. Although the observance of the High Holy Days is centered in the synagogue, it is in the home where family members prepare to meet the New Year in a spirit of faith and in a mood conducive to prayer and soul-searching.

White is thought of as the color which symbolizes purity and joy. Thus the table is set with a white tablecloth and flowers, candles and wine. Round hallot, symbolizing a full round year, apples and a dish of honey for a sweet year complete the symbolic representations on the holiday table.

The family gathers together for the lighting of the candles and kiddush which precede the festive meal on both nights of Rosh Hashanah. The following blessings are recited over the candles:

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, whose mitzvot add holiness to our lives and who gave us the mitzvah to kindle light for the Festival.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, preserved us, and enabled us to reach this season.

After the Rosh Hashanah kiddush, the Motzi is recited over the round hallah:

Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Haolam, hamotzi lehem min ha-aretz.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.

Then all the members of the family dip the apple in honey and recite the following blessing and prayer:

Yehi ratzon milefanekhah Adonai Eloheinu v'Elohei avoteinu, shetehadesh aleינו shannah tovah umetukah.

May it be Thy Will, O Lord our God, to renew unto us a happy and sweet New Year.

After the morning services of Rosh Hashanah, a festive meal is also eaten, preceded by the daytime kiddush and the Motzi:

Tiku vahodesh shofar, bakeseh l'yom

hagenu, kihok l' Yisraelhu, mishpat l'Elohey Yaaqkov.

The greeting on Rosh Hashanah is L'Shanah Tovah Tikatavu — May you be inscribed for a good year.

Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur is the one religious occasion which is observed entirely in the synagogue. But the meal which precedes the fast of Erev Yom Kippur is intended to be a spiritual experience for the entire family. The meal is eaten early so that the family can be in the synagogue before sundown.

Following the Birkat haMazon — the grace after meals — the holiday candles are lit and the following blessings are recited:

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us by The Commandments and has commanded us to kindle the Yom Kippur lights.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has kept us in life, preserved us, and enabled us to reach this season.

Fasting

Although children are not obligated to fast until they are Bar/Bat Mitzvah age, it is a tradition that they do observe the fast in part, to the extent they are able.

Self-denial in food and other physical pleasures is part of the tradition of this "Sabbath of Sabbaths." However, Jewish law and tradition state that the maintenance of life and health is a prime religious duty. If a person is ill or weak, it is the obligation of the individual to consult a physician on the wisdom of fasting.

Memorial Lights

It is a custom to light a Memorial Light for the deceased in each family. Memorial Lights must be lit before the holiday candles are lit.

Blessing the Children

It is the tradition that before leaving for the Kol Nidre service, parents bless their children by placing their hands on the head of each one. Such blessings are introduced by the following prayer, to which parents can add words of their own, appropriate for the age and needs of each child:

For Sons: May God make you a true, faithful and honorable son of Israel, as were Ephraim and Menasseh, the sons of Joseph.

For Daughters: May God make you a faithful and honorable daughter of Israel, as were our mothers Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah.

Forgiveness

At this time, just before leaving the house to attend the Kol Nidre service, members of the family ask each other for forgiveness for the wrongs or the hurts they have done, knowingly or unknowingly, during the year.

In Our Congregation

Shabbat Shuvah

The Sabbath that falls between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is called Shabbat Shuvah, from the Haftarah portion of that Sabbath which begins with the word Shuvah, meaning "return" (repent).

For the Hearing Impaired

Through the generosity of Mrs. Samuel Wimpfheimer, it is now possible for those who are hearing impaired to use head sets while attending services. Please inform the synagogue office if you wish to avail yourself of this convenience.

Tzedakah

As a caring community, congregants are asked to consider the needs of the synagogue at the Kol Nidre Appeal and the two social outreach programs which it supports year round: The Food Pantry and the Committee For The Homeless & Community Outreach.

Congregants are asked to respond as generously as possible to the Kol Nidre Appeal. The funds generated by this annual campaign help balance the annual budget of the synagogue which includes the Religious School program and social service outreach programs.

The Food Pantry, operated by our High School students, supplies food packages to more than one hundred poor families in our neighborhood. The cost of this program is $10 per family, per week. Let your heart dictate to you how you wish to support this important project.

The Committee For The Homeless & Community Outreach, in cooperation with an established and recognized social service agency, Women in Need, supplies bed/bath/kitchen linen gift packages to families who are moving from Women In Need shelters into their own apartments. The Committee also works in cooperation with the Metropolitan New York Coordinating Council on Jewish Poverty to help Soviet Jewish immigrants with their needs.

September Calendar In The Mazer School of Religious Studies

A new academic year is approaching and we are getting ready for a challenging and gratifying one.

Seven members of our faculty participated in the 17th annual CAJE Conference in Los Angeles where they were exposed to new ideas and teaching methods which will be an asset both to them and to other teachers.

The following dates are important in September:

- Monday, September 14 — the first day of Hebrew school
- Saturday, September 19 — Nitzanim service at 10:30 A.M.
- Wednesday, September 23 — Parents' Association Open Meeting at 7:30 P.M.
- Sunday, September 27 through Tuesday, September 29 — Rosh Hashanah (no regular classes in session)
- Monday and Tuesday, September 28 and 29 — Rosh Hashanah services from 10:30 A.M. to 12 Noon.

September Calendar in The Judah Nadich High School

Felipe Goodman and Karen Reiss, both rabbinical students at The Jewish Theological Seminary, joined the faculty. Felipe also will act as the high school's youth director.

The following dates are important in September:

- Wednesday September 16 — Het class registration at 5 P.M. High school registration from 4:30 to 7:30 P.M.

- Sunday, September 20 — Clean-up of the Project Ezra Synagogue on the Lower East Side from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M.
- Monday, September 21 — Registration from 4:30 to 7:30 P.M.
- Wednesday, September 23 — The first day of classes
- Sunday, September 27 — Erev Rosh Hashanah (no classes in session)
- Monday and Tuesday, September 28 and 29 — Rosh Hashanah services from 10:30 A.M. to 12 Noon.

Committee For The Homeless & Community Outreach

playroom for the pre-school children living there; maintained our Job Bank for newly arrived Russian emigres; provided summer clothes for the children of recent Russian emigre families; established liaison sub-committees with two interfaith community-based organizations whose purpose it is to assist a day drop-in center for Jewish homeless people and the frail elderly living in the neighboring SROs.

The Committee always welcomes new members. If you are interested in working on the Committee, please call either Carol Antler at 861-7181 or Joann Rosoff at 348-4531.

The Committee for the Homeless & Community Outreach received the following letter from the Director of Operations of Tranquillity Camp, Inc.:

On behalf of Tranquillity Camp, I want to express our sincerest gratitude for your generous donation to provide a camping experience for 25 recently-arrived Russian immigrant children.

This year, these fortunate children will be afforded the opportunity to leave New York City and spend two or three weeks in the idyllic setting of Tranquillity. They will breathe the fresh country air, have good, healthy fun, and enjoy nutritious food. They will meet many other children and will become part of our American-Jewish family in a short time.

Your increased commitment during these difficult economic times is a wonderful example of what dedicated people can do despite obstacles. In addition to the fund-raising required for the project, you once again have "gone the extra mile" by sponsoring a successful clothing drive for the children.

Once again, thank you for all your help and support.

We Take Pride In

Rabbi Melissa Crespy, who has been appointed to the Governing Board of the Interfaith Assembly on Homelessness & Housing.

Peter Friedman, son of Barbara Delgado and a recent graduate of Brown University, who was awarded the Dorot Fellowship to study next year at Pardes Yeshiva in Jerusalem.

Helen Levine, who was honored as a past president by Victory Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women on the occasion of their 50th anniversary luncheon.

Rabbi Judah Nadich, who was honored at the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Jewish Welfare Board's coordination of rabbis serving as chaplains in the armed forces of the U.S. He was chairman of the Commission on Jewish Chaplaincy of the J.W.B. from 1978 to 1981.

Mrs. Ramie Silbert, who will be awarded the third annual Pearl Milch Award on September 15 by the Women's Division of the American Technion Society for her extraordinary leadership and for her dedicated efforts and sustained commitment to the Technion, the Israel Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Sara Rudavsky Soltes, who received the Distinguished Service Alumni Award from the Alumni Association of the Albert A. List College of Jewish Studies, "The Seminary College-Teachers Institute" and the Graduate School of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America on Sunday, June 14.
